With only a single USB cable connecting the keyboard to your computer, you will enjoy the feel of the traditional keyboard with no messy D-Sub connectors to plug in and unplug. The smooth, silicone-coated keys provide you with tactile feedback, while the streamlined design fits anywhere. Ion DISCOVER keyboard is a portable wireless keyboard designed for your home or office. Features are compatible with Windows and Mac computers, and is designed to be compact and easy to use. Use it with your PC or Mac without the need for a cable. If the computer you're using doesn't have Bluetooth, this compact design doesn't require one either. Wormski Wormski is an Estonian brand of candy and chocolate bars. Wormski is headquartered in Tallinn, Estonia. In April 2006 the company reported US sales of $31.9 million. Wormski is the only chocolate bar manufactured in Estonia. The Wormski logo features a stylized worm motif and is white against the green background. History The first Wormski bar was launched in 1988 by an Estonian company Wormski Ltd, which was later bought by Ferrero SpA. The first Wormski candy bar was launched in the Soviet Union under the name "Kabel". In 1991, the first Wormski chocolate bar was launched. Wormski was acquired by the Swiss company Ferrero SpA in 1998. The Ferrero headquarter in Switzerland is named "Wormski" for the candy brand. In 2004, the first Wormski candy bar was launched in Estonia. In 2006, the company launched its first chocolate bar, which is now the main product line.
